Subject: Marino v. Raymond, et al.

Importance: High

Dear Mr. Guice:

I am writing to you to follow up on rescheduling your deposition. The deposition was suspended last Thursday, May 2, 2013, because you informed me and the other lawyers present at the deposition that you wanted to confer with counsel or engage one before continuing. On the record, you confirmed that you understood that you remained subject to the subpoena even though the deposition was suspended. The Court has issued an order giving the parties until May 31 to complete your deposition. See attached. Please advise me of your availability to finish your deposition between May 15 and May 22, 2013. I would appreciate your prompt response to this email, or a response from your counsel, if you have engaged one, so we can make all necessary arrangements to conclude your deposition. Thank you.

Regards,
